RANGE LAW

by Warren Gardiner

First home vacant land stamp duty concession.

From 1 January, 2007, buyers of vacant land who construct their first home are entitled to Stamp Duty concessions.

A brief summary of the qualifying circumstances and entitlements, are as follows:-

- The home to be constructed on the land must be the buyer's first home, and only one residence can be constructed on the land. The buyer must be an individual/s and at least 18 years of age.
- There can be no building or part of a building on the land at the time of acquisition. The residence to be constructed on the land must be occupied within 2 years of the settlement date.
- The residence must be fixed to the land and approved by a Local Government Authority for human habitation by a single family unit, and must be used for residential purposes.
- There is no duty payable on a purchase price up to $150,000.00. Thereafter, there is a concession on a sliding scale to a maximum purchase price of $300,000.00, when full duty is payable.
- There can be only one claim.
